The Nurturing Parenting Programs®

The Nurturing Parenting Programs® are family-based programs with a proven track record of preventing the recurrence of child abuse and neglect. Departments of Social Services, Day Care Facilities, Prevention Programs of Community Services' Boards, women's centers and many other agencies/ organizations committed to helping families and children in their communities have relied upon the Programs as a primary parenting program to promote healthy family life and break the cycle of child maltreatment.

The Nurturing Parenting Programs® are recognized by the National Registry of Effective Programs and Practices (NREPP), the Substance Abuse-Mental Health Services Administration (SAMSHA) and the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP).

Today, there are over 18 Nurturing Parenting Programs®, each addressing the specific needs of different populations:

Adult-Adolescent Parenting Inventory (AAPI-2)

The AAPI-2 has proven invaluable in assessing the parenting attitudes and child-rearing beliefs of parents and adolescents. Founded on five constructs known to lead to abusive parenting, the AAPI provides scores that profile parents at risk for abusing and neglecting children.

Description:

In this 3 day training, Participants will learn:

- ♦ The philosophy, values, goals, structure, and validation of the Nurturing Parenting Program®.
- ♦ How the 5 Constructs are taught and understood in the Program, through activities relating to child development, personal power, alternatives to corporal punishment, and building self-esteem, self-concept and empathy in parents and children.
- ♦ A hands-on approach to implementing and conducting group and home based Nurturing Parenting Programs® that includes practice sessions, use of program materials, videos and assessment tools, children's and parents' program activities, family home practice assignments, icebreakers.
- ♦ Application of the Adult-Adolescent Parenting Inventory (AAPI-2)

During this training, different Nurturing Parenting Program® Curricula will be available for review.
